It may be a strain but you can see some of "our guys" in this picture.

1. Joe (Steve) Carroll is through the glass backboard on the L/H side and is looking to his right
2. Brent Bundy is to Joe's immediate left (your right), just on the R/H side of the black guy with the white jacket
3. Larry Stanley is to Brent's immediate left (your right)
4. Paul Close is to Larry's immediate left, just behind the black guy with the white jacket

Basketball Mob Scene

East Chicago fans swarm around their Washington Heroes as they start to cut down the nets at Butler Fieldhouse after winning the 50th state high school basketball championship by defeating Central of Muncie, 75 - 59. It was the first time in the memory of many tourney veterans that fans were permitted on the fieldhouse floor after a state championship game. Ready to climb up the ladder for a swipe at the nets is Artis Johnson, a substitute. – The News Photo, Larry George
