SENIORS HONORED

The seniors of the First Baptist church were honored at a service at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

The pastor, Rev. William F. Harris, spoke on "Your Task." The recognition of the senior's was given by Gilbert Warner with the response by Steven Fisher. The Misses Carol Warner and Nancy Goodman presented special music.

There was a social hour in the fellowship hall following the service.

HOLDS BREAKFAST

The Help One Another club held a May breakfast recently in the Colonial Room of the Coffee Pot restaurant when 13 members attended. Members responded to roll call with "What My Mother Taught Me."

Following the breakfast a program honoring Mother's day by Mrs. William Weiler was held. A letter was read from Mrs. Dorothy Pfaff, member, from Richmond.

The attendance prize was awarded to. Mrs. Herman Kingery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holdsworth of Anaheim,

Graver in their new home east of East Germantown. Mrs. Holdsworth was the former Irene Jones of Cambridge City.

Students Have Outing

Children from the seventh grade of Central school, taught by Mrs. Mary Moehring were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Myers, north of the city. The planned wiener roast was held in the Myers home, where a co-operative supper was also featured.

Assisting Mrs. Myers were Oral and Debbie Myers and Mrs. Moehring, Mrs. James Parker and Mrs. Reuben Bertsch. Other parents assisted with transportation.

SORORITY MEETS

The Lambda chapter of the Phi Chi Epsilon sorority met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Walter Shewman with 23 members and one guest, Mrs. Donald Chaney of Buffalo, N. Y., a former member of the chapter present.

Plans were completed for the sorority rummage sale which will be held Friday and Saturday of this week in the Marson building with the following hours to be observed: Friday, 9 a. m. through 7:30 p. m., and on Saturday, 9 a. m. through 4 p. m.

The attendance prize was awarded to Mrs. David Barnes.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, May 31, with Mrs. Orie Slonaker, south of Cambridge City, at which time a shower will honor Mrs. James Brower. Mrs. Rex Sigler will assist with the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tague and daughter, Lois, have purchased and moved into the former Ivo Wenning home in Pennville.

The Tagues recently lost much of their household furnishings in a disastrous fire on East Church street, here.
